*Amenities may vary

Tunica, Mississippi is the third largest gambling destination in the United States, behind only Las Vegas and Atlantic City. Some of the top names in gambling – Harrah's, Bally's and Sheraton – are included among the ten casinos operating in the area. In Tunica, however, the excitement comes with a touch of Southern hospitality. Located just 30 miles south of Memphis, this region is widely considered the birthplace of American blues music. In fact, Route 61, which runs through the area, is known as the "Blues Highway."
